

Compassion

Dear Loved One,

My compassion goes out to you whenever you are suffering. It carries healing for your heart and deliverance from this present darkness. I do not condemn or think evil thoughts; rather I'm always offering My love to all who are in need.

My compassion led Me to demonstrate My love in many different ways when I walked on the earth. I fed thousands who were hungry. I restored the man who came back to Me from his exile in the graveyard and I gave back to the widow her only son who had died.

Today, I yearn to bring forth My compassion in and through you in many unique ways. Join Me in this life of loving compassion. Together we will bring light that continues to dispel the darkness until the dawning of the day that has now end.

Love Always,

Jesus
