

Expecting

Dear Promised One,

I am coming again, just as I have promised you. We shall be together and share in the glory of our Father's Kingdom. May you look forward to my arrival today and every day knowing that what is in store is far above and beyond what you can possibly imagine.

Just now, you are waiting. But, remember 'He renews the strength of those who wait upon the Lord and has a crown of life as the reward for your enduring love of Him'. So, don't give up! Continue to be of good cheer at the thought of our being together forever. Let my love of you and in you overcome any present darkness as you anticipate living in our Kingdom where there is no night – just perfect sight.

With Joyful Expectation,

Jesus