

Forgiveness

Dear Precious One,

If there were a key to the throne room of God, where mercy and grace abound, it would be forgiveness. My Kingdom is a kingdom of love, 'Forgive them for they know not what they do' are My living words before the Father for all the times you have missed it. They are also living words for you to escape the darkness of judgment and bitterness in this world.

When you forgive, you are not condoning or agreeing with evil. You are yielding your right to judge to the One Judge of all. Your trust in His judgment mirrors Mine and will bring peace to your soul.

Please accept My forgiveness extended to you - and extend it to others. There is not one wicked way that the Father does not know about and can handle. Let Him.

Grace and peace to you,

Jesus
