

Hope

Dear Hopeful One,

As a boat floats, so hope keeps your life afloat. Can you hope for a life better than the one awaiting you in heaven where your tears are wiped away and there is no more death, sorrow, crying or pain?

(Revelation 21:4)

Nevertheless, I was also speaking the truth when I told you that you would experience trials in the world. But as I endured and have overcome this world, including its pain and sorrow, so will you.

Let this hope be the anchor of your soul. You can be sure that through the storms of life, you will not only survive, but be strengthened, protected and perfected. Glory, My glory, is to be yours forever.

Truly Yours,

Jesus
