

Innocent

Dear Blameless One,

'Not guilty' is my cry before the Father of the Universe on your behalf. I was born of lowly estate, never held public office or any position with worldly authority, accumulated no great possessions and was accused and sentenced to death by the religious and political leaders of my day. Nevertheless, I hold the key of welcome and acceptance into the Kingdom of God for you.

Receive my gift of freedom from the power of and the punishment for mistakes – yours and others.

Take the time to allow the blood I shed on the cross to cover and cleanse you from all the things you have done to others and others have done to you that cry 'guilty' in your soul. Then partake of and enjoy reconciliation with your Father who loves you beyond your wildest imagination.

Yours in Faith,

Jesus
