

Love

Beloved,

You are loved by the Lord above all!! Believe this! Receive this; for it is the truth above all else! God, the Father, loved you so much that

He gave you Me. I love you so much that I was willing to die once rather than live without you forever. Meditate on this. Let it sink in and ask us to show you this love, for we are more than willing to do so.

The giving of my life opened the door for kingdom living. For you, it may start with letting me bear your pains and sorrows. Surely, I am willing to do this. Then, you can partake of our riches as you accept the forgiveness I offer for your mistakes as well as others.

The Father and I love you unconditionally and without end. Even in experiences that may appear to be evil, our love is present to rescue and redeem, to bear with and bless you. Let it.

*All My Love,
Jesus*
